

Pat in Her Own Words: Make Winning an Attitude

Coach Pat Summitt

(There are) no shortcuts to success. You will hear that over and over and over. People want to take shortcuts. Those people struggle to ever get to the top. And we always are just wanting to be at the top of our game.

We want to cut down nets every year. It's hard. It's hard to do. It's hard to bring a team together to work hard enough to say, 'We all have it right. And we're winners. And we're cutting down nets.'
