

Pat in Her Own Words: Be a Competitor

Coach Pat Summitt

And I thought, you know, some day we're going to win a championship, and I just hope I'm still coaching here to be a part of it. And that team, when they came into Austin (Texas for the 1987 Final Four) ... I had to go down early ... when they flew in I remember meeting them.

They came off the elevator (and) I go, 'All right, ladies. Are we ready?' And I just remember Karla Horton (and) Shelley Sexton. They were like, 'Coach, we came here to win a national championship. We're cutting down the nets.'

You know what? I believed them.
